
Contents

Foreword		i
Editorial		ii
1. Symbolic Architecture and the Communication Methods of the Ao-Naga Morung	Tiamenla Imsong	1-10
2. Ehtso and Hiam: Traditional Fibre Works of the Khamniungan Nagas of Nagaland, India.	Heme	11-17
3. The Interplay of Emotions and Learning; Towards a Positive Learning Environment	Kevitsunuo Linyu	18-24
4. Prospect or Future Vaccination through the Lens of Geriatric Population: A Structural Equation Model Approach Based on the COVID-19 Vaccine	Watitemjen P. Akumsenla Kichu	25-40
5. Ecosophy in the Select Folktales of the Konyak Nagas	Dr. Honngam Konyak	41-47
6. Environmental Discrimination and Violence: A Discourse in Search of Environmental Justice in Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens	Sentilemla Lemtur	48-58
7. Traditional Healthcare Approaches by Indigenous People in Assam and their Scientific Relevance (A Review)	Jonming Chetia Neizo Puro C.R. Deb	59-70
8. The Ao Traditional Village Government: The Process of Succession: A Case Study	K. Nokmarenba	71-82
9. Domestication of Wild Edible Strain of Pleurotus pulmonarius (Fr.) Quél. (Oyster mushroom) from Mokokchung District in Nagaland State, India: A Prospect for Sustainable Livelihood	Naomi T. Ajungla	83-92

- | | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|---------|
| 10. Fermented Soybean and Resilient Food Systems:
A Pathway to Community Growth in Nagaland | I Narola Imchen | 93-103 |
| 11. Environmental Aesthetics: The Significance of 'Aesthetics' for Environmental Appreciation
and Preservation | Akumjungla Jamir | 104-110 |
| 12. A Philosophical Approach towards Conserving and Preserving Nature: A Comparative Study of the different concepts in Religion | Wandashisha Mary
Nongbri | 111-116 |
| 13. A Study on "Grey-water Management with special reference to Improved Waste Water Soak pit Interventions in Meghalaya" | Sambor Hynñiewta | 117-128 |
| 14. Locating Shared Affinities and Inclusive Existence, Dismantling Oppression:
An Ecofeminist Study of Select Folktales
and Myths in Ao Naga Narratives | I Yashikala Jamir | 129-136 |