

CONTENTS

Foreword		vii
Editorial		viii
Socio-Political Association of Taro as a food crop with Bura Namsang Village Nagaland, India	R. Arangba Pongener	1-11
Paradigm Shifts in Teaching and Learning	Katikala Prof. Buno Liegise	12-20
Fundamentals of Mentoring: An Outline	Alemtula	21-32
Revisiting and Reviving Traditional Practices: The Mech Kacharis of Nagaland	Sebastian Roy Prof. Y. Ben Lotha	33-43
A Critical Enquiry on the Introduction of Christianity and Identity Transformation among the Nagas: With Special Reference to the Ao Nagas	Sensonaro Longchar	44-55
On the Issues of Body Vulnerability and Beauty Complex: An Outcry for Ethical Responsibility	Imlabenla Jamir	56-70
Gods Venerated by the Nagas: Traditional Beliefs and Practices	K A Tenso Phom	71-81
Articulation of Dissent, Assertion and Resistance in Death through “Laburnum for My Head”	Dr. Bendangrenla S Longkumer	82-93
Integrating Folklore and Traditional Ecological Knowledge: Insights from the Ao Community of Nagaland	Imtijungla Imchen	94-103

Machine Learning-Based Classification of Economically Important Herbal Plants Using Google Teachable Machine	Wati Temjen Sentibenla Aochen Aolemla Pongener Tajensangla Jamir Akumlong Pongen	104–116
Higher Education in Nagaland: A Comparative Analysis of Higher Education among Different Districts	Yanglikumla	117–129
Democratic Participatory Orientation in Nagaland Amidst Insurgency: An Overview	K Nokmarenba	130–154